LIMBERING UP — Tatiros Mooradian, who at 105 says he still has an ear for a good fiddle, limbers up his fingers in preparation for his appearance Sunday at the annual Armenian American Citizens Club picnic. Mooradian, a self taught musician, has been playing the violin that way for 65 years. Bee Photo

Fresno's Oldest Fiddler Keeps In Tune For His 106th Birthday

no longer are as day party," he says